FBI and press- FBI and control

On 11/25/63 DeLoach undertook to persaude the WxPost, thrpugh its v.p. and managing editor, Al Friendly, not to tun a planned editorial espousong establishment of a Presidential commission. DeLoach represented his call as "a matter of grave concern" and he quoted Hoover as saying that such a commission would "muddy the waters." DeL said he though a commission " would merely serve to confuse the issue." Friendly promised him that the editprial would be eliminated. Then Freidnly called back to say that the final decision would be Editor Wiggins'.

Katzenbach, who in fact has strongly urged establishments of such a commission, offered to phone Wiggins to persaude him not to run the editorial and did!
